ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Findings of Fact

[] A. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e), § 3142(f)(1)].

[] (1) The defendant has been convicted of a (federal offense) (state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed) that is

[] a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).

[] an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.

[] an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. () § 801 et seq. () § 951 et seq. () § 955(a).

[] a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) (A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.

[] (2) The offense described in finding 1 was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.

[] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

[] (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

☐ B. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)]

☐ (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and information at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 28 year old born in Harris County, Texas. His mother is deceased and he is not close to his two siblings. He has two children with his common law wife. Prior to arrest he lived with his wife and children in her mother's house. He has two children from a prior marriage. He admits being a member of the Aryan Brotherhood of Texas, a white supremacist criminal gang. He smokes marijuana daily.
2. Prior to his arrest, defendant ran American Brothers Tattoo and Piercing. He previously worked as an iron steel worker and has a welding certificate.
3. Defendant has 4 prior convictions for possession of marijuana and a felony conviction for aggravated robbery.
4. Defendant is currently charged with being a felon in possession of a firearm in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922. He is facing a penalty of up to 10 years in prison.
5. Surveillance evidence at the detention hearing shows that defendant illegally purchased four firearms at a gun show on or about June 25, 2011.
6. While defendant advised pretrial services that he intended to renounce membership in the Aryan Brotherhood, he was heard on a tape of a jail phone call on September 21, 2011 discussing with an Aryan Brotherhood General an assault on a fellow prisoner. During this same phone call, defendant was promoted to the rank of Captain and leader of this criminal gang in Montgomery County, Texas.
7. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.

Signed at Houston, Texas, on October 3, 2011.
